Respected Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 22nd. instant and I am very much obliged for your words of appreciation.

I had decided in early January that as a Life Worker of the Party it was my duty to help the Party Candidates in the Election Campaign. It was a matter of duty for me. I had also decided to come to Rajkot to try and help you as much as possible as it was a pleasure to work for an honourable man who in addition was my Party President. I must admit it was a great pleasure to work under you Sir and I still feel that the voters of Rajkot District stand to lose by rejecting the services of a man like you. I also sincerely regret that good and honourable people who are very rare these days do not get what they deserve.

I have however a great satisfaction that I have done my duty and if there were to be a similar occasion once again I will definitely try and render all the help I can but next time I would start much earlier.

My wife has also asked me to thank you for remembering both of us and she has requested me to assure you that she was not at all inconvenienced but she feels sorry that our efforts did not meet with the success which was definitely your due.

I wish to convey to you best wishes for the future and assure you of my best co-operation at all times.

With kindest regards, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

(I.C. Thakkar)
