My dear Rajaji,

* I enclose a copy of a letter just received from Mr. Cushrow Irani which makes sad reading. I feel terribly hurt about this as it is not the first time that our President in his enthusiasm goes and upsets things worked out by me very patiently and with a great deal of effort.
* I have today sent him a letter (copy attached) and have also
* wired Patodha (copy attached) to stop things getting out of hand.

I am so sorry these things have to happen but I am sending these papers to you in advance so that you might in your own inimitable way be good enough to try and get Prof.
Ranga to appreciate the need for some division of labour and in seeing that the organisational work of the General Secretary and the Central Office is not impaired by flying visits from the President resulting in our wires getting crossed and discouragement being given to those who are putting in hard day to day work at our behest.

Yours sincerely,

Encl:
