I am sending you an elaboration and explanation of the six-point minimum programme suggested by me at the socialist unity conference held in Lucknow on the 1st instant. It is written in haste, while I have been moving about. I submit it for your consideration. You may suggest further points of explanation. You may also suggest what can be usefully eliminated. The minimum tentative programme suggested can be discussed only at a meeting of the leaders of the different democratic opposition parties. I would like you to send me your suggestions for the holding of such a meeting as soon as practicable.

With best wishes and
greeting, ym sincerely
Jm Kripalani
