My dear Rajaji,

Professor Milton Friedman of Chicago University, who is one of the leading advocates of the liberal school of economics in the world, is on a visit here. He would very much like to meet you in Madras and I have told him that, if you are there, you will no doubt be good enough to spare some time for him. His dates in Madras are February 23 to 25 (inclusive). Since he does not know where he will be staying, I have suggested to him that he might telephone you either at Kalki or at your residence. I am sure you will enjoy meeting him. He is just as lucid as Shenoy and even more persuasive.

Yours sincerely,

(M. R. MASANI)
