Hyderabad Masani

The Hindu brought out the Subash Chandra Statement as planned, in its issue this morning.

Milton Friedman called on me last evening and we had a nice long chat for over an hour. The public meeting did not come off as I explained before in my last letter. I liked him very much — if this be permissible to say: He is a brilliant person.

We ought ^{to} set a small - shop harsh ^{one day} as a token of sympathy with the poor workers.
Of course there are quite a few who profit by every policy of the Government and who will not — join in any protest. But the back of shopkeepers will respond, if the jewellers will go and request them for a token demonstration. If it begins in one place, it will be followed elsewhere. Can Col. Pasricha beg the Delhi shopkeepers?

Assuming, without enquiring, that you must stand for the Gujarat legislation, can we find a suitable candidate to stand for the Datar vacancy? What about Lalchand Walchand's wife. She appeared quite capable and a wholehearted supporter of ours.

Yours affly

(Rajmohandas)

After writing
I heard up the above
I have sent you letter of Feb 25 and see how things stand. We shall meet at Cormbatore - C.R.

Neither Hindustan Times nor Times of India of 27th morning carries the halfpage advertisement - So far Hindustan & Indian Express Southern edition have bought it only. This covers only South India. If H.T. + Times of India ~~have~~ + Statesman? have decided not to publish it, we must at least get Indian Express Bombay & Delhi editions to carry it.
Please put this to Sri masani. I hope ^{see it} is Bombay when this reaches you.

If it is a question of delay only, there is no great harm if it appears mark 1 or mark 2 even on ~~Feb 1 or Feb 2~~ ~~or Feb 2~~ for that matter later even -
