February 19, 1980.

My dear Govind Singhji,

I am surprised to receive your letter of 15th February and find that my earlier letter addressed to you on 1st February has not reached you. A spare copy of the letter is attached for your information.

I shall be in Bombay except on 16th March and I shall be away in Delhi for a day. You are welcome to see me in Bombay but please do not do so only for that purpose as the time and money spent would not be justified.

I have spoken to Mr. Raju who has promised to send the material you had asked for from the Swatantra Party. Mr. Raju is also sending you an invitation to the meeting of former colleagues in Delhi on 16th March at the residence of Mr. D. N. Patodia at N-108, Panchshila Park, New Delhi - 110 017 at 10 a.m. which I have promised to attend. If you can come to Delhi on the 16th it can also perhaps save your visit to Bombay.

I hope the address at the top of your letter paper is adequate and this letter at least will reach you.

Yours sincerely,

Encl : Copy of the letter.
