Dear Mr. Bharati,

Thank you for your letter of March 8. I feel touched by your confidence in me, though I feel it is largely undeserved. I am doing what little I can to help JP in his task, but I shall bear in mind what you say in case the kind of situation you envisage does materialise. I am inclined to agree with you about your concern and if you will get a copy of the book that I have written on the subject which Macmillan^{Masani} are publishing in end April/early May, you will find that I have anticipated some of your anxieties and dealt with them.

Yours sincerely,

M.R. Masani
