My dear Masani,

Your thesis at the National Convention of the Swatantra Party about JP has proved correct. He has already emerged as the spearhead of the National Alternative.

As you might have read Shri. L.K. Advani's speech at Delhi as reported in the newspapers yesterday, the National Alternative is to be institutionalised but as you rightly said them, things cannot be done in the manner it was suggested by Piloo.

I have suggested to Mr. Sundaram that in the present context, he should get in touch with Shri. Advani after consulting the Swatantra Legislators in Tamil Nadu. My personal feelings are that we should seize the opportunity of entering into a dialogue with the Jana Sangh, now that JP has clearly given his blessings to Jana Sangh in his speech at the Janasangh meeting at Delhi.

Please let me know your reactions. With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Girish Munshi
