June 25, 1984

My dear Zaminder,

Thank you very much for your letter of 14th June which I was happy to receive.

Yes, I have returned from Saudi Arabia after a four years stay and am trying to catch up on lost time.

I entirely agree with you about the sad absence of a credible alternative. Many who supported the Swatantra Party now say that it was a mistake. Poor consolation! The fact is even if it be half hearted and under pressure from the ^{to have dissolved} ~~higher~~ ^{14/} up the government is adopting economic policies closer to those advocated by us. But not enough.

Why don't you write for Freedom First occasionally?

Your comments on the Naxalites are interesting.

I will pass on your suggestions concerning the syndicating of Mr. Masani's articles in Hindi. But who will translate them?

I will ask Mr. Masani about the books of Prof. Brij Narayan.

I do hope that the next time you visit Bombay we can meet.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(S. V. Raju)

Personal.

My dear Raju,

I was glad to read your article in Freedom First.

It seems that you have returned from your long stay in the gulf countries.

Anarchy is prevailing in the country and there is no credible alternative leadership. Smt Gandhi is the only all India leader today.

The Punjab crisis has created bitterness and I do not think that it will be wiped soon. I expect an act of revenge on some important persons.

My articles in Hindi are being syndicated by the Sarvodaya Press Service. The articles on the Punjab crisis and Anarchy - an invitation to disaster were published in more than forty papers but I have received no reaction.

Naxalites are touring the country under the garb of ACTIVISTS. A young man and a young lady called on me.

PVO

and discussed many things. They hailed from Punjab.

I wish that Shri Masani's articles are syndicated in Hindi. They deserve wide circulation.

Please convey ~~my~~ ^{my} best wishes to Shri Masani.

Kind regards.

Yours sincerely
K. Janindar

P.S.

In the thirties and forties late
Prof. Brij Narayan published many books.
Please try to get them. Shri Masani must have read them.
