My dear Raju,

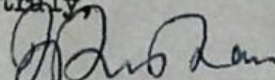

Many thanks for your kind greetings and best wishes for a Happy New Year, which I heartily reciprocate. I enthusiastically join you in your prayers to the Almighty for the growth of the party and the destruction of its detractors.

I am leaving on a tour of Tirunelveli and Ramanathapuram districts this evening and I hope to be back in Madras on the New Year Day.

I hope you have seen my letters to Mr. Girish Munshi and copies of letters received from U.P. From Mr. Arya's letter to our President we have to believe that Mr. Arya is still interested in our party and that he wants to build it up. If you agree with my assessment please tell me whether we may use his services for finding out the right type of persons for forming an ad hoc committee U.P. Similarly we have to set up ad hoc committees for Rajasthan and Gujarat. I have suggested to Mr. Munshi that some of the national leaders of our party should visit these states to assess the situation and form ad hoc committees.

Please let me know your views at an early date.

Yours truly,

(V.S. Srikumar)
Secretary.
