29th March, 1971

Dear Mrs. Alva,

Thank you for your letter of 15th March and for the interest you have shown in the election results. As you say, it is all very sad but we have to learn the lessons that emerge by what the Americans call an 'agonising reappraisal'. I am glad you have made your contribution by putting a few very pertinent questions. We shall certainly bear them in mind in the coming months when we all have to search our hearts.

Yours sincerely,
