My dear Raju,

I am glad to inform you that Mr.G.K.Sundaram as Treasurer, All India Swatantra Party will be sending out notices shortly calling for a meeting of the National General Council at Madras on the 8th December, 1974. I believe it is very appropriate that this meeting should be held on the 96th Birthday of late Poojya Rajaji so that we may rededicate ourselves to the cause that was so dear to his heart and for which he fought valiantly till his end. It is necessary that steps should be taken by you with the cooperation of our friends in your State to bring with you all the National General Council members of your State who are definitely on our side. It will be greatly encouraging to everybody if at least 50 % of the total strength of the General Council members as it existed in August 1974 will attend this meeting.

Kindly sent me a list of members in advance and oblige.

Thanking you in anticipation and with my highest regards,

Yours truly,

(V.S.Srikumar)
Secretary.

P.S. Mr.Sundaram has sent the follg:
telegram to leaders in several States:
"National General Council meets at Madras on 8th December. Detailed letter follows.
Please mobilise members dedicated to Swatantra to attend meeting in your company. Telegraph number likely to attend."
