Dear Mr. Raju,

I am afraid the information I supplied you in my last letter about Arya has turned out to be incorrect. I am sorry, but I was misled by him. While assuring me that he had no intention of joining B.R.D., he had been visiting Pillai regularly on the excuse that he had some money to collect from him.

I have been told by others who joined B.R.D., that he is attending the meetings of Delhi Unit of B.R.D. regularly. At the last meeting, Mr. Sondhi, the President of Delhi ^{Unit}, promised to nominate him to the Executive Committee of the Delhi Unit.

I suspect he has been playing a double game all the time. That's why he undertook to make arrangements for the Convention here.

I have advanced well into the story of Swatantra. I have named it tentatively, 'Rise & Fall of Swatantra'.

On second thought, I don't think it would ^{be} any advantage to have access to official files. I want to keep it as impersonal as possible, mentioning names where unavoidable eg, Ramgarh, Naharawal, Naharoni etc.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

H. R. Pariche
