My dear Sir Homi

It 'was a pleasant surprise getting your letter dated the 16/18 July 1959 & for which I thank you. I think there has been some misunderstanding somewhere as I had not written to you at all, much less asking you to put me up with you in Bombay. Any way, it is so kind of you to have asked me & my wife for a meal with you. I am sorry for a belated reply as your letter was redirected to me here from Durgapur.

I believe the Swatantra Party has, as you state, received a good response & I wish it success. I hope to be back in October first week & while in Bombay shall try to look you up for a few minutes before leaving for Durgapur.

With warm regards.

Yours sincerely,

Lakshman Singh
