Dear Mr. Zamindar,

I write to thank you for your letter of the 7th August.

The response to the Swatantra Party has been gratifying, and I hope we shall be able to set up an organisation in every important centre in India. The headquarters of the Party will, for the present, remain at Bangalore, but I am hoping ~~it~~ ^{they} may be shifted to Bombay after a while.

You have stressed the desirability of starting a Hindi newspaper. Similar suggestions have been received from various other quarters, but it is obvious that, at this stage of the Party's existence, it is not possible to find resources adequate enough for any ventures in the field of journalism.

I hope you will continue to take an interest in the fortunes of the Party.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

N. C. Zamindar, Esq.
