Rukhamani Mahal,
Saraswati Bagh, Jogeshwari,
BOMBAY-42.

9-7-59.

Dear Sir Horni,

Sir P. M. Mehta taught your honour in your young age, how to knock down Bureaucratic people.
He himself knock down in Bombay Municipality the Bombay Time and Standard Time.

In your old age your honour has to knock down "Sakar"
and I congratulate you for joining "Swatantra" party. I shall be happy to become a member, although I am a member of the Forum of Free Enterprise from commencement.

I read with interest
what Bhairab Sakar Rajagopalachari said in Bombay. We are fortunate of securing him.

In India's political life, Mr. Dadabhai Naoraji, Sir P. M. Mehta and Sir Winston Churchill came forward to build up and now Sir Horni Mehta, Mr.
A. D. Shroff and Mr. Masani have to labour and established
"Swatantra" party for ever.

30 years I remain under the guidance of my late father's partner Sir Shahoolji Broacha from 1890 to 1920.

Now at my age of 70
I want your blessing till I go to grave.

I am pretty well
in my finance, and have got big family to cheer me up.

In public life I am well settled as I am Vice-President of Sindia merchants club. The club is 40 years old at chaughly next to Wilson college in his own building and we have 292 members all business people as members. The entrance fee is Rs 500 and Rs 100 as yearly subscription.

I want to entertain Rajaji in the first week of August for K.R.

With esteem respect
Yours Sincerely
Ruttonchund Master.
