

19th August, 1959.

Dear Mr. Anantani,

1784
Thanks for your letter of the 13th August. I am glad to learn you are taking an interest in the Swatantra Party and are prepared to work up support for it amongst the people of Kutch. Will you kindly get in touch with Mr. M. P. Joshi, ex-Speaker, Saurashtra State, staying in Jamnagar, in this connection? He is convenor for the Party in that region, and I hope he will react favourably to your suggestion to set up a separate branch at Kutch.

I shall thank you to keep me informed of any developments that may take place.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

B. N. Anantani, Esq.

My dear Sir,

We have a seperate convenor for the Swatantra Party in Saurashtra and Kutch. He is Mr. M. P. Joshi, ex-Speaker, Saurashtra State, who stays at Jamnagar. You may, therefore, refer Mr. Anantani to Mr. Joshi and ask him to arrange with the latter for setting up a seperate branch at Kutch for enrolment of members, etc. I believe Kutch must be regarded as a seperate district, as it is considered as such even by the Congress.

I am returning herewith the letter of Mr. Anantani.

With warm regards,

Sir H. P. Mody,

Bombay House,
BOMBAY.

I am,
Very Sincerely Yours
R. V. Murthy
