My dear Maharawal,

I have just received your letter of the 13th July. I am very sorry I am not in a position to put you up. My house is undergoing extensive repairs and alterations and it will be another two or three months before they are completed. We would otherwise have been most happy to offer to you and the Maharani Saheba the hospitality of our house. We hope you will appreciate the circumstances and give us the pleasure of having you with us on some other occasion.

The Swatantra Party seems to have come at a psychological moment judging from the response it has received from the press and the public. In my opinion, it should primarily be a Party of the 'small man'; Big Business should not be too closely identified with it.

Will you kindly give us a date when we can have you and the Maharani Saheba for a quiet meal?

With warm regards

Yours sincerely
edf. H. P. Mody.
