My dear Sir Homi Mody,

As I am reaching Bombay day after tomorrow, where I propose to stay upto July 4th, I shall be delighted to call on you at the time and date of your convenience to be kindly intimated to me C/o Shri Dara Jehangir, 1, Cuffe Parade, Bombay-5. He has also a phone at his residence.

I am going through the book on Sir Jameshetjee Jejeebhoy I, which was ~~being~~ received and shall feel it a privilege if you could very kindly arrange on phone my meeting with Sir J.J. the Sixth Baronet to whom I could not address on the subject straightaway being unaware of his Bombay address. Obviously, contact with a one of his emience sweetens life and hence this request.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Mohan L.
