Dear Sir Homi,

I thought that you might be interested that we are having a public meeting at the Walchand Hirachand hall, tomorrow, Friday the 12th, at 6.15 p.m. at which Jayaprakash and I will be speaking. I expect that we shall refer to the new party proposed to be formed, a copy of whose principles is attached herewith. It would be nice if you could be present.

See you about all this in a couple of days. I shall come encl.

Yours sincerely,

M. R. Masani
