My dear Mr. Masani,

There was a meeting called the other day by the Minister of Parliamentary Affairs of the representatives of all Groups in Lok Sabha to consider the question of reducing the quorum. Mr. C.L. Narasimha Reddy attended the meeting on behalf of our Party. I understand from him that all members who attended the meeting, including Congressmen like Mr. Raghunath Singh and Mr. H.C. Mathur, emphatically opposed the idea of reducing the quorum. It seems Mr. Satyanarayana Sinha felt offended and that without the meeting concluding he walked out of the room. Apparently there is no more the question of reducing the quorum.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,
