My dear Jain,

I have written to Professor Ranga suggesting that the first meeting of our Group in Parliament should be called immediately after the President finishes his address to the Joint Sitting of both Houses so that we may consider the tenor of the address and determine our amendments, our line of attack and our speakers. This will also be appropriate since both Professor Ranga and I will be busy in Kerala and elsewhere right till the session commences. I have suggested to Professor Ranga that he drops you a line endorsing the proposal and, as soon as you hear from him, I shall be glad if you will kindly issue notices accordingly.

Yours sincerely,

M. R. Basani
