Prof. N.G. Ranga,
44, Western Court,
New Delhi.

Sir,

I beg to submit as under:-

1. That I joined Swatantra Party Parliamentary Office, 53 North Avenue, New Delhi, on the 7th of October 1963 @ Rs.250/- per mensem. I was promised by Mr. A.P. Jain, the Office Secretary, that from the 1st of November 1963 as per his recommendation to Maharaja Sahib P.K. Deo, I would be given the salary of Rs.300/ per mensem. ~~xxxxxxx~~. He has not so far confirmed the same.
2. Mr. A.P. Jain, the Secretary, has been rude to me.
3. During office hours Mr. Jain had been talking ill of some of the party members with a view to caution me.
4. Mr. Jain sometimes had been going out of office with his friends and did not come back at all or if ever he turned up he came at the close of the office hours and forced us to work till very late.
5. I am therefore fed up with Mr. Jain's behaviour and would be submitting my resignation soon. This is for your information, please.
6. Having developed an inimical disposition towards me, at the sickness of my family people recently he refused to show me any sympathy by way of acceding to my request to advance me something against my dues.

Yours respectfully,
