12th June, 1963.

My dear Jain,

Thank you for your letters of 7th and 10th June and for the information they contain.

So far as the two meetings which Professor Ranga wishes to call are concerned, I have already written to him suggesting that our own Party meeting should be on Monday, 12th August, the day before the session commences. I do not see why the other meeting of opposition group leaders should not take place on the same day. The group meeting should be after our Party meeting so that we may consult our own members first. I would, therefore, suggest that our Party meeting should be late in the morning or early in the afternoon on that day and the group meeting later in the afternoon or in the evening.

Yours sincerely,

(M.R. Masani)
