My dear Raju,

Thank you very much for your letter dated 9th instant with enclosures. Regarding the amount lying with the Bank of India, Bombay, Sri G.K.Sundaram and myself thought that it is not advisable to keep the money in the bank since the other party is likely to give some trouble as they are doing with respect to delivery of postal articles. So I requested Sri Paramanand Kejriwalji to draw the amount after getting a cheque leaf or in the alternative to send it here so that I may have the money drawn. Accordingly after the cheque book was received here and after getting Mr.Sundaram's instructions I have sent a bearer cheque for Rs.5,000/- in the name of Mr.Narayan by registered post under cover of my letter dated 9th instant. ~~Tax~~ I do not know whether Mr.Narayan would have drawn this amount by this time. Anyhow I am sending a copy of your letter to our President, Mr.Sundaram and shall act according to his instructions.

Thanking you once again and with my regards,

Yours truly,

V.S. Srikumar
