10th January, 1975.

Dear Mr. Sundaram,

Thank you for your letter of 1st January, 1975, forwarding copies of letters received from some U.P. gentlemen. I know about Mr. Vijay Pal Singh Saxena and Mr. R.S. Bharati, but I have not heard of Mr. C. Sekar. Mr. Hari Kumar Pathak is also a good man and so is Mr. J.G. Tiwari. Unfortunately, unless somebody visits U.P. and sits with all these gentlemen at one place, I am afraid we shall only be repeating earlier mistakes, and my suggestion is that Mr. Harihar Patel should be authorised to go to UP to meet these people at one place, preferably away from Lucknow, that is, in one of the smaller towns from where these gentlemen have written.

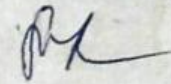

Mr. Patel would need some money and I think if a sum of Rs. 1,000/- can be made available to him for this purpose, it might be worth while. If we can once again put up our flag in UP, it would have a psychological impact on our Party elsewhere.

I understand that a meeting of the National Executive is being convened in Bombay on the 22nd. If Haribabu comes to Bombay then, we can settle this.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Mr. K. Sundaram
