My dear Patodia,

I have seen your letter of May 15. I am afraid this is a topic on which I find it difficult to give any advice one way or the other. This has become an unfortunate point of controversy within the ranks of the party and I am trying very hard to keep out of it. You heard what I had to say at the meeting in Bombay the other day and it appears to me whether the proposed changes made or not ¹⁶ are not going to amount to very much in the way of results.

You should, of course, follow your instincts in the matter, but unless you feel like tendering your resignation I see no reason why you should do so. I hope you will be coming to the meeting in Madras towards the end of June as I should look forward to seeing you then. You can always tender your resignation on the spot if you feel the situation calls for it.

Regards

Yours sincerely,

M.R.
