My dear Girishbhai,

It has been brought to my notice that our letters are being collected by your office staff from the postman. All our Bank statements and advices are being opened by your staff which is highly objectionable, and at times even a number of letters are being kept back in your office.

I would request to kindly instruct your office staff to refrain from doing any such thing and in future all letters addressed to Swatantra Party National Headquarters should be delivered to our office.

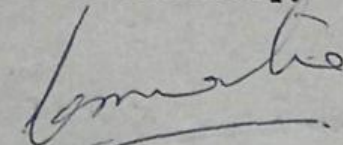

I fail to understand what was wrong with the earlier practice that ~~the~~ letters were being delivered to our office and your letters were being sent to you. I would suggest that we revert back to our old practice with immediate effect.

I am sorry to bring all this to your notice, and as a friend I thought it is better to make things clear before further misunderstandings take place.

I am sure you will agree with me in what I have said.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(V. P. BHATIA).
