Dear Sri Girish Munshiji,

I am in receipt of your telegram reading "Please send 30 authorisation letters for Maharashtra delegates Earliest Stop Arranging stay at Parshi Vidya Bhavan Delhi Stop Inform your address Phone No. Delhi." and confirm my reply thereto reading "Yourtel. Posting one letter addressed to Mr.P.Ramachandran, Tamilnad House New Delhi to issue necessary papers for thirty of our colleagues of Maharashtra to you. No separate authorisation is necessary in your case. Myself most probably not attending Convention".

Since you will be leading the delegation from Maharashtra I thought separate letters of authorisation to individual delegates will not be necessary. If you ^{will} please call at the Tamilnad House where Mr.P.Ramachandran, Chairman of the Tamilnad Janata Party (Energy Minister) ^{is} ~~will~~ be staying with my letter he will make the arrangements for the issue of badges and other papers enabling our friends from Maharashtra to participate in the Convention.

As I have stated in my telegram I am not in a position to attend this Convention for personal reasons.

Thanking you and with my regards,

Yours truly,

(V.S. Srikumar)
Jt. Secretary.
