Dear Sir,

I duly got the notice for a meeting today of the Executive Committee. I am sorry I shall not be able to attend the meeting.

Latterly, I have been finding that invariably the date and time of our meetings clash with engagements which I have to attend as part of my professional assignment. I am, therefore, beginning to feel that, rather than be on the Committee and not attend meetings regularly I would serve the party better by making way to someone else who can afford the time. Please be good enough in these circumstances, to treat this as my resignation and oblige.

May I add that I shall continue and be proud to continue as a n ordinary member of the Party.
