My dear Sri Munshiji,

Many thanks for your letter of the 7th instant. I am giving all consideration to the points you have made and a detailed reply will follow within a day or two.

As far as Sri Kamaraj Nadar is concerned I have every reason to believe that he is still in favour of some adjustment with Congress(R) for the simple reason that money and power will be available to him to fight the DMK and ADMK in Tamilnad and Pondicherry. But I am reliably told that the lady is not prepared to take a decision immediately as she is not sure that Congress(R) and Congress(O) together will be able to defeat ADMK in Tamilnad. She seems to be playing the game of "Wait and See". Sri Kamaraj's ~~stall~~ is causing confusion and criticism amongst those who are anxious to see Congress(R) ~~divided~~ in Tamilnad also. Of course this section does not want either DMK or ADMK to win. defeated

I shall write to you in more detail after a day or two.

Thanking you once again and with my regards,

Yours truly,

V.S. Srikumar
