

2619

Please reply to:

L/9/72 Tilak Nagar
Chembur, Bombay 89

May 20, 1975

Dear Col. Pasricha:

I have seen your letter of May 2, 1975 to Mr. Girish Munshi who is now out of Bombay on vacation.

I wish you had not taken such a tragic view of the situation which is not exactly comparable with the 'grand alliance', inasmuch as it is based on a minimum common programme. In our own counter resolution in August last year, you will recall that we had pleaded that we first work together with other parties before submerging our identity. This was opposed by P.M. In other words, we had been vindicated. I am not very happy with most of the things that have happened in Ahmedabad. When we meet in Delhi next, I will talk to you a few more behind-the-scene gossip. Meanwhile, may I plead with you to continue to maintain your well-known patience?

I enclose a copy of my letter to Mr. Arya of even date which will be of interest to you, as this bears out what you told me last time in Delhi.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

S. V. Raju

Enc: one

Col. H.R.P. Pasricha
20-B Northern Extension Area
New Delhi 110060

Please reply to:

L/9/72 Tilak Nagar
Chembur, Bombay 89

May 20, 1975

Dear Col. Pasricha:

I have seen your letter of May 2, 1975 to Mr. Girish Munshi who is now out of Bombay on vacation.

I wish you had not taken such a tragic view of the situation which is not exactly comparable with the 'grand alliance', inasmuch as it is based on a minimum common programme. In our own counter resolution in August last year, you will recall that we had pleaded that we first work together with other parties before submerging our identity. This was opposed by P.M. In other words, we had been vindicated. I am not very happy with most of the things that have happened in Ahmedabad. When we meet in Delhi next, I will talk to you a few more behind-the-scene gossip. Meanwhile, may I plead with you to continue to maintain your well-known patience?

I enclose a copy of my letter to Mr. Arya of even date which will be of interest to you, as this bears out what you told me last time in Delhi.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Enc: one

S. V. Raju

Col. H.R.P. Pasricha
20-B Northern Extension Area
New Delhi 110060