30th May, 1968.

My dear Harihar Babu,

I saw your letter No. 51493C of 16th May, only a couple of days ago, on my return from abroad. I am glad you have decided to go ahead with the appointment of a Public Relations Advisor.

As desired by you I enclose a note about the age, qualifications and experience for the position, its responsibilities and proposed salary and terms. I trust you will find them of use.

Would it not be better if the appointment were in the first instance to be made on an ad hoc or probationary basis, say for a year and then confirmed by a reference of the State Public Service Commission? If you decide on this course, I shall be glad to try and be of help in recommending two or three persons of the right kind, who could be interviewed by you and from whom you could make a choice.

Yours sincerely,

(M.R. Masani)
