Dear Mr. Masani,

After carefully considering certain necessary implications of the frank talks you had with me yesterday, I have come to the conclusion that, as at present advised, it would not be fair to the Party and its cause, if I accept any office, or otherwise function conspicuously in the Parliament, till such time that the Party has, through a Competent Committee, carefully gone through the printed judicial records of my I.C.S. Service Case now consigned to the Supreme Court Record Rooms.

The opinions, such as this

Committee may eventually come to, can enable the Party and I as to in what precise manner I can best serve the cause of the Party.

It is also possible that such an examination of these records may incidentally afford some significant insights into the real dynamism of our State - apparatus likely to be helpful to the Party in discharge of their fundamental duties.

Assuring of my loyalty and devotion to our Party I remain,

Yours Sincerely,

Kalyan Singh
