1st June 1962

My dear Dahyabhai,

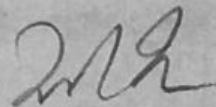

Your letter of 28th May has just reached me and I hasten to reply to it.

First of all, when the Parliamentary Board nominated you as leader of the Party in the Rajya Sabha for the first session, what was intended was the whole of this session including the one that starts on 14th June. These are really two parts of the same session of the Lok Sabha but, in the case of the Rajya Sabha, there is an intermission. In view of this, please go right ahead and take all steps necessary concerning the work of the session commencing 14th June. I am sorry this confusion should have occurred and, if I had known about it earlier, I would have cleared it immediately.

We have received a letter from Narendrasingh Jhalla but I am not quite clear about the facts of it. I shall be glad if you will kindly help Raju on his return from Kerala on 6th June in straightening out the Gujarat accounts in so far as you are concerned.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(M. R. MASANI)
