My dear Rajaji,

I am very happy to see your article "Social Justice vs. Socialism" and the Dear Reader column in your issue of April 8 of which you have sent advance copies to me. I am glad that the suggestion you had made in the earlier issue of April 1 that perhaps a change in the name of the Party might be helpful has been countermanded by you. Frankly, I do not think any change in the mere name of the Party without a change in principles (which of course you rightly rule out) would serve any ~~masani~~ purpose. 'A rose by any other name smells as sweet' and the converse is also true and people would only ask "who do you think you are fooling?" I am glad, therefore that a quietus has been given to that thought.

I enclose a copy of my reply to Dr.R.C.Cooper commenting on his letter to Mr. H.M.Patel of which he has sent you and me a copy.

Yours sincerely,

(M. R. MASANI)
