My dear Jain,

Thank you for your three letters of October 30. I am attending to all of them.

As you know I am not coming until the 7th morning but I am meeting the Press in Bombay on the 4th and shall bear in mind your suggestion.

Re: The U.P. I have informed all concerned that no action should be taken until the Central Parliamentary Board meets in Delhi on the 7th and takes a decision about our representation in the U.P. Government.

Yours sincerely,

(M.R. Nazari)
