My dear Jain,

Yours of the 13th. I propose to come up to Delhi by the morning flight on Sunday, the 26th, in time to attend the Executive Committee meeting of our Party at 4 p.m. and the General Body at 5:30 p.m.

But why do you want the members of the Parliamentary Party to reach Delhi twenty-four hours earlier for no purpose as mentioned in the first sentence of Prof. Amin's letter? Perhaps this is a typing mistake.

Yours sincerely,

M. R. Masani

My dear Mr. Masani,

and time
Enclosed herewith is a letter about ^{the} Executive Committee and the General Body meetings of the Parliamentary Party. This letter has been sent to all members as per the suggestion of Prof. Ranga. He said that the Executive Committee should meet first on Sunday, 26th July to be followed by the General Body. I hope these dates ~~are~~ suit you.

I am sorry I was not in Delhi on the 29th June, 1970 for your Press Conference. The Press coverage of the conference, however, was extremely good.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(A.P. Jain)
