UNITED INDEPENDENT PARLIAMENTARY GROUP

PRESS RELEASE

At a meeting held, today, the United Independent Parliamentary Group which consists of 25 Lok Sabha members, decided that in the present political crisis when there is no viable democratic alternative to the present Government, in the interests of national stability, the Group would lend its support to the Government. The group felt that, at present, the dominant consideration of maintaining parliamentary stability, democratic freedoms and social progress should take precedence over issues which might otherwise have been of some importance. As a body of Independent members the Group reserves the right to assess major issues, as they arise, on their merits, the guiding motive of the Group being to strengthen the democratic forces in the country.
