My dear Rangaji,

I am leaving for Trinidad on the 20th September to attend the forthcoming meetings of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Conference.

As you know my name was first mooted out for inclusion in the Indian delegation when Shri Sanjiva Reddy was the Speaker. After Mr. Sanjiva Reddy's relinquishing office, he had left a word with the Lok Sabha Secretariat and it was brought to the notice of the present Speaker Shri Dhillon by me and by the Secretariat. He was kind enough to agree to include me in the delegation. This information was passed on by me to you and you were kind enough not to object to my being included in the delegation. That is how I finally found a place in the Indian delegation for the forthcoming Commonwealth Parliamentary Conference.

I hope to come back by the first week of November.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Y.G. Gowd)
