Dear Col. Pasricha,

* After the enclosed letter was typed I received your letter of the 19th. I was sorry to know that you were not well. I look forward to receiving your revised manuscript in a few days. My exams are still on and will be over on the 7th of next month. I am going on a fortnight's leave and will be back in office on the 9th.

As the enclosed letter will show I learnt about Arya's turnabout from his own paper Lok Bharati. Not every one can resist the lure of money. I can't say power because the BLD has very little.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(S. V. Raju)

Dear Mr. Raju, By now you have put your examination behind you, and, I am sure, successfully.

I was not too well during the last few days, but I have finished revising and re-typing the manuscript. I was very unpleasantly surprised to find that in my hurry to get it to you, I had missed out so many mistakes. I think the new one is more readable. I shall be able to dispatch it to you in a few days.

Arya is now the General Secretary of the Delhi unit of P.R.D. As I suspected I told you he was very much mixed with them. His visits to Pillod were too frequent.

With kind regards. Yours Sincerely
H.R. Pasricha
