My dear Rajasaheb:

I was painfully shocked when I heard over the Radio last night of the passing away of your father, Maharajasahebof Patna.

I have known your father since 1962 and I have always held him in high regard, our recent differences on the dissolution of the Swatantra Party notwithstanding.

If I had an inkling that he had been in a hospital in Bombay for the last three months, I would have considered it an honour to have called on him. Unfortunately, this was denied to me.

May I convey to you and the members of your family my heart-felt condolences?

Yours sincerely,

S.V. Raju
