an apology for the inordinate delay in sending these. Some bags of paper have been transferred to my SUNDARPOH residence, but I am not sure if those contain any party paper. If I find any I will send those.

Are you taking any steps for our meet- and discussion regarding future political activities? I have been going through the 'As I see it' columns by Mr. Minoo Masani and had come across the one in which he had discoursed about N. T. R.'s efforts also. Mr. Masani has become old and it is perhaps not desirable to put burdens on him; but I have a feeling ~~that~~ that there is no body else to give a good start. I have also started feeling the impact of old age and disabilities crippling up. . . .

Anyway, I will be happy to hear something from you.

Kindly convey my warm regards to Mr. Masami.

Hope, my letter finds you hale & hearty.

With all my good wishes;

Yours Sincerely
Harshad Patel

Dear Mr. Royce;
I have already sent by registered Boob-Pod - whatever papers relating to Stanton's party could be found with me. All sorts of papers had been dumped in the gunny bag in 1971 while working that. Besides after collapse of our part. And I had an impression that lot of party papers were there inside.
When, however, these were opened recently after receipt of your letter among were found moth-eaten and destroyed by insects, the etc. The Boob which could be found in lot - have been sent.
The packet will disappoint you, no doubt, and I see you
