S.V. RAJU

March 19, 1985

Dear Rajballabh Babu,

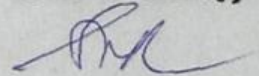

Thank you very much for your reply of 7th March.
It is nice to know that I am not entirely forgotten!

Some time later in the year I shall write to you again for information concerning the conduct of Party affairs in Orissa.

Many thanks for sending me Ghasiram Majhi's address. I was wondering where to write to him.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(S. V. Raju)

My Dear Mr. Raja.

Your kind letter gave immense pleasure to me. You were so intimate to all of us that it would need no P.S. to introduce you as the erstwhile Executive Secretary of the Swatantra Party. I sincerely wish you success in your endeavor for the thesis and have no doubt that you will get the Doctorate.

The papers you have asked for were taken from me by one Mr. Aggar, then a lecturer of Patna College, in Patnagarh, Bolangir District, since he came with a letter from his father-in-law, Late Mulidhar Patra M.L.A. Since Mr Pandey's death I have not been able to contact Mr Aggar nor is there any news from him. I don't know where he is posted now.

The papers I had were of a general nature. The office papers were in custody of Sri Ghasiram Nayki. You may kindly write to him to the following address

Sri Ghasiram Nayki
Ex-General Secretary
Swatantra Party

P.O. Nuapada
Dist. Kalahandi

I hope you are doing well. Wishing you success in your attempt for Doctorate and with regards.

Yours sincerely
Raj Ballabh
Mishra
