My dear Srikumar,

At the outset my apologies for even suggesting that you had forgotten me. The fact of the matter is that I had added the P.S. for some others with whom I was not as close. I should have cut out the P.S. when writing to you; this I did not, and for which my apologies.

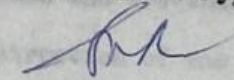

I am indeed ^{records}very sad to learn that the Headquarters of the Party have been ~~locked~~. Dr. Santosham to whom I had written also ~~informs me~~ that he has no records with him whatsoever. If you will give me the address of Mr. V. Subramaniam, I shall write to him. Mr. Chitra Narayanaswamy replied saying that I should contact you!

If you could try to make some inquiry as to where the records have gone, it would be helpful. I shall certainly be needing your help particularly when dealing with Madras in my thesis.

My family is fine.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(S. V. Raju)

Dear Raju,

Your letter of the 28th February 1985 was a pleasant surprise. It is really audacious on your part to suggest that I would have forgotten a long standing and dear friend like RAJU. I do not know how far I will be able to assist you in preparing the thesis for the doctorate you are aiming at. All the records of the Swatantra party that were at Madras were shifted from place to place during the last years of its existence with the result that all of them have been lost. Our erstwhile friends and colleagues - Mr.V.Subramaniam, Advocate and Dr.Santosham also contributed their share for the destruction of the records. All the same I am at your disposal for whatever assistance you need ⁱⁿ on this work.

Kindly convey my regards to Mr.Masani and other friends. I hope all the members of your family are in fine fettle.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

P.S Having kept me in the dark about your return to India it is not fair on your part to allege that I would have forgotten you!
