Dear Raju, How loved I possibly forget you! your thesis is an excellent idea, My husband & I would be happy to help you by filling the necessary articles or giving you an interview — however, he does not travel. I would contact you when I am next in Bombay.

My files on the party are not available — many of my papers were destroyed by termites (my house keeps being bed!) However, I shall look through old bound volumes for papers & see if I can locate any useful material of you — usually commented editorially on meeting. Please leave me a contact

Phase leave me a contact

Excuse this scribbled letter.
My typewriter is not functioning, & the household since I saw kept my husband's bed fast - I never I have managed letter, overnight though, hence the scrawl!
