My Dear Shri Raju,

It is such a great pleasure to hear from you after a lapse of number of years. How can any one forget you and your charming nature and the efficient way in which you handled the affairs of the National party. At least I can never forget you.

I shall be happy to hand over to you whatever papers are in my possession. Whatever was with the Secretary in the office seems to have been either sold as waste paper or thrown away. I am glad you have undertaken a good cause and I wish you every success.

I am likely to be in Bombay during the first week of March, when I shall ~~bring~~ bring the papers and hand them over to you personally.

With kind regards and best wishes
Sincerely yours.

KR Kalathi
