My dear Girish,

I just saw the letter from Sassoon J. David & Co. Ltd., I am sending ^{a copy} ~~it~~ to you. I am shocked. You know this is the mischief of Bhatia and Manubhai.

I am sure Pilco is also a party to this. You didn't pay heed to what I said. Shall we meet today at Party office at 6.p.m?

Yours sincerely,

(S. V. Raju)

Dear Sir,

I am concerned for Messrs. Sassoon J. David & Co. Ltd.

2. You are a tenant of the above Company of their premises situate at 141-143 Mahatma Gandhi Road, Fort, Bombay, occupying a portion of their premises admeasuring 1,430 square feet paying ththerefore a sum of Rs.394.79 per month as rent.
3. Recently it has come to my client's notice that one of the rooms occupied by you has been renovated and the same has been wrongfully sub-let to one Messrs. Barot & Co. The portion so sub-let has been approximately 240 sq. ft.
4. You are requested to furnish the following :-
 - (a) The amount of compensation which you are redeiving from Messrs. Barot & Co., and the consideration of advance, if any, received from them.
 - (b) Copies of documents passed between you and Messrs. Barot & Co., in connection with the aforesaid sub-letting, and
 - (c) whether permission of the Controller of Accommodation was obtained before you parted with the said premises.
5. You will appreciate that your action in parting with the possession of a portion of the premises and wrongfully sub-letting the said premises has rendered yourself liable to being evicted from the premises.
6. Before, however, any action is taken against you, I request you to give an explanation, if any, you have.

Yours faithfully,
