Present:

Mr. S.V. Raju In the chair
Mr. K.H. Subramanian
Mr. S. Ramachandran
Mr. P.N. Subramanian
Mr. S.L. Popat

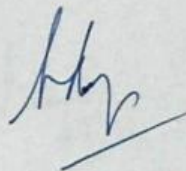

Mr. S.V. Raju presided over the special meeting to mourn the passing away of Mr. L.R. Sampat.

The meeting mourned the passing away of the Party's General Secretary Mr. Laxmidas R. Sampat on 7-12-1999 due to heart ailment with a minute's silence in memory of the departed soul. Mr. Raju spoke about the services rendered by Mr. Sampat and his tireless work in attending to the various cases connected with the Party's office premises ensuring the Party's representation and presence. The meeting lauded Mr. Sampat's tremendous efforts and services rendered to the Party and the cause of Total Freedom. His death is an irreparable loss to the Party.

The meeting decided to convey the Party's sympathies and the condolences to Mr. Sampat's family by a delegation of the office bearers.

The question of appointing someone else in place of Mr. Sampat was discussed. After discussions it was decided to look for a suitable member who is willing to take up the responsibilities, at the earliest.

There being no other business for discussion the meeting was terminated.
