Mr. K.H. Subramanian In the chair.
Mr. S.V. Raju
Mr. L.R. Sampat
Mr. P.N. Subramanian
Mr. S. Ramachandran
Mr. Nitin G. Raut (Legal Advisor) By Spl. invitation.

Mr. K.H. Subramanian was duly proposed and seconded to chair the meeting.

Leave of absence was granted to Mr. J. Venkiteswaran who was out of station and Mr. S.L. Popat who was indisposed.

The meeting was informed by Mr. Raju about the opinions and course of action sought from some senior counsels in the Party's cases against the Courier Publications and Mr. Ratansinh Rajda. Mr. Nitin Raut, party's legal counsel, explained the positions of the cases in various courts and the efforts taken to expedite them.

The meeting was informed that the writ petition challenging the section 29 (A) of the Representation of the People Act, filed in the Bombay High Court, had still not come up for hearing.

Mr. Raju stressed the need to interact with the people more frequently and be in touch with them by press conferences, news letters in daily news papers and periodicals and group meetings.

The meeting terminated with a vote of thanks to the chair.
